DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-24 are pending in this application.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 04/14/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant argues "the claims recite features neither taught nor suggested by Ellis et al. In particular, such features include identifying at least one key object in at least one Internet document, as recited in claims 1 and 13, and "identifying a plurality of key object in at least one Internet document, as recited in claim 19."

The examiner respectfully disagrees with the above argument. In Ellis, the program guide in an Internet document wherein the user used the multiple input devices may be used to control the interactive program guide. Infrared keyboard 30b may be used when browsing the Internet or to enter information for the program guide (col. 5, lines 1-3). For example, on video-on-demand application 60 may use in database access resource 68d. Database access resource 68d is a program guide resource that allows program guide application 56 to access program data (e.g., program titles, times, channels, rating, summary information, etc.) by the infrared device (col. 6, lines 65-67 and col. 7, lines 1-3) wherein this corresponding to the step of identifying at least one key object in at least one Internet document and the key object is the program title. This is for claims 1 and 13. In addition, Ellis also suggested in above argument that the program guides contains number of titles movies one the program guide being selected from the main menus. Therefore, several videos are displayed in response to the selecting the video demand.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
